

Rémi Carpentier

Adjuster since 2026

ADJUSTING FIELDS

Industrial production and plant management
Preventive and corrective maintenance management
(machinery and vehicle fleets)
Continuous improvement / Lean manufacturing
(5S, problem solving, standard work)
Performance monitoring and KPI management
(SQDC, reporting, visual management)
Process industrialization and production ramp-up
Quality, food safety and compliance management
Maritime sector

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

General engineer specialized in the agri-food industry, Rémi Carpentier has more than 20 years of experience in industrial management and process improvement within international groups such as McCain Foods and Danone, before pursuing his passion for boating and maritime surveying in New Caledonia, where he now carries out pre-insurance surveys, post-claim inspections, and cargo surveys for all types of vessels.

TRAINING

General Engineering Degree - Food Industry specialization
Advanced Technician Diploma (BTS) - Food Industry specialization

LANGUAGES

French, English

BP 43190
98713 PAPEETE BP
Polynésie Française

Remi.carpentier@naudet.fr
M. +687 720 163

